

Potential Discussion Questions
Message: Engage JOY, Pt 6 (4-30-17)
Partners & the Finished Work

1. What is an unfinished project you have? What would it take to finish it?

2. What is a spiritually unfinished work that God is doing in you? What is the next step in moving it toward completion?

3. How might your life currently be inspiring others to joy? Are you content with your "inspirational joy"? What would you like to change?

4. How do you understand partnership (fellowship; koinonia) in the Gospel?

Where are you experiencing it? Where would you like to experience it more?

5. When you consider "God finishes what He starts," what comes to your mind? How does it make you feel? What difference does it make?

6. What does it look like for you to "fellowship together" in grace (be partakers of grace) with other believers? Why does this help us get each other into our hearts?

7. What would you say to a friend who does not feel the affection of Christ toward other believers?

8. How would you assess your heart's affection toward other believers? How could you excel still more? What stands in the way for you?

9. What in this passage would you like to discuss that hasn't been covered?

10. What is a significant insight you have gained from this study? How will it make a difference in your next week?
