

Potential Discussion Questions

Message: Know God - Just, pt 2 (6-17-18)

1. What do you consider our most pressing societal need for justice? Why?
2. How would you respond to a person who says God must not be just because there is so much injustice in the world? What did you learn from our 2 studies or other sources that helps you wrestle with this?
3. The outline lists lots of verses on justice, and you can find many more with a simple search. Read several and summarize what you think are the most important teachings. Does anything surprise or convict you?
4. Have you experienced a time when God's justice brought you comfort and hope? Explain what happened and how you were impacted.
5. Who do you consider the most vulnerable people around you? Does this study stir anything within your heart and desires for how to relate with them or intervene?
6. Is the biblical call to justice primarily a personal or corporate responsibility? What is the difference? Does it matter? Why?
7. How should a biblical view of justice impact our homes, our relationships, our politics? How could the world be helped with a biblical view of justice?
8. Take a couple of current injustices (like human slavery, racial inequities, immigration, etc.) and discuss how the biblical call to justice might impact you personally or public policy.
9. If there was some action step for you to take (or that you are taking) to live out biblical justice, what is it? What can you do in response this week?
10. What else would you like to discuss about this study on God's justice?
11. What is your best take-away from this study?
12. How can the group pray for you this week?
