

Potential Discussion Questions

Message 2020-2-23, What's Up Doc, the Millennium, pt 1 (Rev. 20)

1. What makes you want to know what's coming in the future?
2. How does anticipating the return of Christ motivate us to holiness and hope?
3. Why does doctrine matter to you? Why is it important for us as a church to consider carefully our beliefs?
4. When you read Revelation 20:1-10, what stands out most to you?
5. Read Revelation 19, ignoring the chapter division into chapter 20. Does the natural understanding and connecting words sound like a chronological sequence? Why?
6. Review the chart handed out with the outline. If anything is confusing or unclear, make a list of questions you would like answered. See if you can find the answers, but also send them to Pastor Dale. (We may be able to address them next Sunday.)
7. See if you can give a brief summary of the 3 major views and how the words amillennial, postmillennial and premillennial help give a basic understanding.
8. Would a plain sense reading of Rev. 20:1-10 incline you to see the 1000 years as figurative or literal? Why?
9. What stood out to you as convincing or confusing in Pastor's explanation of Rev 20?
10. How do you hold convictions while remaining respectful to those with a different view?
11. How do we as a church preserve unity in this process?
12. Review: what 2 things is prophecy to produce in us? H _____ & H _____
How might it do that for you this week?
13. What would you like to discuss from this passage that hasn't been addressed?
