

Suggested Discussion Questions for 4/23/2023

Message: God All Around

1. If you were asked by a friend, "Where is God?" what would be your first response? How does this study inform your response?

2. Review the list of topics and passages studied in this message.

Which "location" of God speaks most profoundly to you? Why?

Are there any that surprise you?

3. We looked at several passages and experiences of biblical characters demonstrating how the biblical authors described God's presence. Can you think of one or two more? Share them and discuss what they add to our understanding of God's presence.

4. Because God is omnipresent, these descriptions are seeking to aid our understanding and flesh out the wonderful mystery of God's presence. What other terms or images come to your mind to describe God's presence?

5. We covered a lot of different scriptures in this study. Which is your favorite? How has it impacted your life?

6. When you consider that "God is all around," how does it encourage and challenge you?

7. Is there a specific application where reflecting on these many aspects of God's presence provides help, comfort or perspective for a situation you currently face?

8. What would you like to discuss further?

9. How can the group pray for you this week in the application of this study to your life?