Suggested Discussion Questions for 9/17/2023 Message: Thriving with the Thessalonians, pt 5, (1 Thes. 3:1-11)

- 1. Share a season of suffering or opposition that you have endured. How did God bring about your thriving through it?
- 2. Read back through chapter 3 a couple times, maybe in different translations. What strikes you most? Formulate a question or two you would like the group to discuss.
- 3. How would you establish or exhort or encourage someone suffering for their faith? What clues do you get from this passage?
- 4. How does Paul's concern for the Thessalonians inspire your desire to live in fellowship with other believers?
- 5. What are the implications for us that we are destined to suffer? Cite another passage that supports this reality. How should it shape the way we look at life?
- 6. How does 2 Corinthians 4, especially verses 16-18, encourage you? Challenge you?
- 7. If someone asked you to explain what it means to really live, how would you answer, based on this passage?
- 8. The idea of supplying what is lacking in someone's faith is an interesting concept, especially since we like to think of ourselves as in a better condition that we probably are. How do you think this works out practically for you?
- 9. What is one step you would like to take this week to go forward in your walk with God?
