Message: Psalm 145 Praise and Worship Service

1. Share some ways the consistent practice of praise positively impacts your spiritual journey.
2. Beyond attending regular church services, what are practical ways you do (or could) commit to praising God?
3. David states that God's greatness is unsearchable (beyond full comprehension). What are some things that come to your mind when you think of God's greatness? In what ways is His greatness "unsearchable"?
4. Verses 4-13 provide something of a motivation, if not a mandate, for ministry to children. What stands out to you in this section and how can you be an active participant?
5. How does meditation lead to proclamation in your life? How might it be enhanced?
6. What is a recent work of God in your life to which you can testify? (Be specific and recent.)
7. What happens to us if we stop seeing and testifying of the character and work of God in our lives?
8. What does it mean to call on God "in truth"? What does it require to do that? What is the implication if we call upon God without truth?
9. Spend a few minutes praying using the statements in the Psalm as your guide/prompter.
10. What else from this Psalm stands out to you that you would like to share or discuss?
